DC NATION SPOTLIGHT ON

GREEN LANTERN CORPS

INTERVIEW WITH WRITERS JEREMY ADAMS AND MORGAN HAMPTON

The intergalactic band is back together in DC's first Green Lantern Corps series in years, debuting in February from the creative team of writers Jeremy Adams (Green Lantern) and Morgan Hampton (Cyborg) and artist Fernando Pasarin (The Flash). This new monthly series stars John Stewart, Guy Gardner, Jo Mullein, Jessica Cruz, Simon Baz, Kyle Rayner, and many more—and they're going to need all the help they can get, with massive threats on the rise across the cosmos.

IS THERE A MAIN CHARACTER (OR CHARACTERS) IN GREEN LANTERN CORPS, OR IS IT A TRUE ENSEMBLE?

JEREMY ADAMS: I think of it as an ensemble. We'll be focusing on specific characters for different mini-arcs, but really, the Green Lantern Corps is about everyone who wears a ring, which...even though there aren't as many as there used to be, is still a lot!

MORGAN HAMPTON: They'll all be there all the time, but we'll be shifting focus here and there to see what's driving them.

SERIES ARTIST FERNANDO PASARIN CALLS THIS HIS DREAM PROJECT. WHAT'S BEEN MOST REWARDING ABOUT COLLABORATING WITH HIM ON THIS SO FAR?

ADAMS: I've worked with Fernando a lot, and each time he turns around and surprises me. His detail and attention to the background always have me floored. He's the perfect person to bring the cosmic world of DC Comics to life!

HAMPTON: He's so passionate about these characters, and that is on display with every line drawn. Getting an email from him with pages is like opening up a gift on Christmas, and it's always better than expected. Every panel, every page is full of so much love and care.

WHAT'S COMPELLING TO YOU ABOUT THE THREAT SORROW REPRESENTS TO THE CORPS? AND WHAT KIND OF FAR-OUT POCKETS OF THE DC UNIVERSE WILL READERS SEE ON THE MISSION TO STOP HIM?

HAMPTON: It's interesting to write Sorrow because his motivations come from such a sad place. There's a lot of potential there, especially because Sorrow's power is so immense and his emotion runs so deep.

ADAMS: As far as places we'll go...I think the question is where won't we go. Morgan and I are really trying to hit it all.

DO YOU HAVE A FAVORITE LANTERN YOU'VE GOTTEN TO WRITE IN THIS SERIES?

ADAMS: My go-to is Guy, but I find myself drawn to Keli and Ellie. I like the kid characters, and I think Morgan and I have some great dramatic things to do with them in the future.

HAMPTON: For me, It's John. It's been a dream come true to add to his character.
